

Gas Spring Flap Stay With Damper STABILUS

Gas springs are a proven and reliable method of counterbalancing objects. They are ideal for safely, smoothly and quietly lifting and lowering cabinet lids and flaps. The gas spring is a hydropneumatic adjusting element consisting of a pressure tube, a piston rod and piston and is filled with compressed nitrogen. It comes in two styles: a lid stay for lift up lids and a damper for pull down flaps.

- Secure holding in open and closed positions
- Easy to mount/install
- Compact and attractive design
- Maintenance free
- Opens to 90°
- Maximum door height 24"
- Silver

